Day of Atonement Memorial Offerings 'Yizkor List'

Dear Member

It is a tradition on the Day of Atonement when Yizkor is recited to recall our dear departed relatives and friends, and it has become the practice to make an offering to the Synagogue in their memory. This was instituted by the Sages in order to do mitzvoth, meritorious deeds, in memory of the departed to whose souls are also judged on Yom Kippur.

As is the usual practice, unless notified otherwise, we will presume that you desire the offering you made last year to be repeated or "Chai", that is, $18.00, whichever is greater.

The names of the departed relatives will be placed in the vestibule of the Synagogue and similarly in the foyer of the Adele Southwick Centre.

The names will also be recorded in the Congregation's official 'Yizkor Memorial List'.
