We're thrilled that you have honoured us by sharing your simchah in our Shule. May we share many more semachot together for many years to come.

We're here to help you and provide you with the following information to ensure a fantastic outcome for your simchah. Towards the bottom of this page there is some information we need from you, to help us ensure that everything runs smoothly.

SERVICE TIMES: Our Shabbat Service commences at 9.00am. Please ask your visitors, who many not be known to us, to make their presence known to the President who is seated in front of the Bimah. Please note that late arrival of your selected guests may make it impossible for them to receive an honour.

DIGNITY & DECORUM: Please remind your family and friends that mobile telephones and pagers must be turned off before entering the Shule grounds.

LOLLIES: Some families and friends like to shower the groom / bar mitzvah boy with lollies after he has been called to the Torah. Lollies will be supplied at a cost of $12.00 per 850g bag by the Synagogue office. These may be collected from the table in the Board Room of the Synagogue. For religious reasons, we do not permit lollies to be brought to the Synagogue on Shabbat.

👉 I do or bags / do not require lollies.

OFFERINGS: Those given an honour on the occasion of your simchah will be invited to make an offering after receiving the honour. Offerings made by your family and friends will be billed directly to them, if you have provided us with their contact details below. Otherwise, their offerings will be billed to your account and the statement will show their names where they are known to us. In order to enable us to give due consideration to offering an honour to your family and/or friends listed below. Please note that any person who has married contrary to the Laws of Orthodox Judaism is not eligible to receive any honour.
